

ODDITIES IN THE NEWS ALL OVER THE WORLD

Queer Things That Have Just Happened, Condensed From Press Reports In From All Quarters.

Court O. K.'s Cowbell for Keeping Tab on Husband.

A wife may keep tab on her husband with a cowbell in St. Louis if she wants to, and if she has the inclination and the opportunity she may pull her husband's mustache.

Circuit Judge Muench has so decided in the divorce suit of Henry and Julia Curry. It appeared from the evidence that Mrs. Curry wanted to be certain when her husband came home, without having to stay awake.

So she hung a cowbell on the front door in such a way that it would begin to jangle the minute he tried to slip in.

Mr. Curry was never able to put anything over in the slipping line, and became pensive. He also said that his wife persisted in pulling his mustache many times during the night to keep him from sleeping.

The Court decided the wife had acted within her rights, and no divorce was granted.

Shaves Only on Birthdays.

Edward Lewis, of Stratford, Conn., celebrates his birthday by getting a shave and a hair cut, and it is the only time during the year that he does.

For many years he has followed this rule, and he has just successfully passed through his last annual ordeal at the local barber shop.

At 29 Weds Sixth Husband.

At the age of twenty-nine Mrs. Lydia Rice-Crozier-Hayes-Smith of Logansport, Ind., has taken her sixth husband in the person of Edward Hones.

Two of her former husbands died and three were divorced. The bride smilingly told the justice who married her that she hoped she would never have to get another husband.

Bonds Self to Close Saloons.

Stephen Crawford, candidate for Mayor of Alton, Ill., has gone one better than other reformers, who merely give their word to live up to platform pledges.

He has deposited $2,000 in a bank as "bail" to be forfeited if he is elected and fails to close the saloons on Sunday.

Wooded Since Child, Weds at 86.

Two church services were stopped at Middlefield, Conn., when Miss Lucretia Rockwell, eighty-six, and Orrin Scott, seventy-three, were married in the Methodist Church. The services there were halted so the Rev. W. F. Cook could marry them.

The people at the Congregational Church adjourned so the pastor and bride could witness the marriage at the other church. The bride said her husband had pleaded with her since girlhood to marry him and she finally consented.

Three in Family Live 288 Years. The record for longevity in one family is held by the Paulsons, of Newark, N. J., the last of whom, Mrs. Helen Schoonmaker, died at the age of ninety-nine years.

She was a daughter of Richard Paulson. Father, mother and daughter's combined ages were 288 years, he dying at ninety-nine years and his wife at ninety.

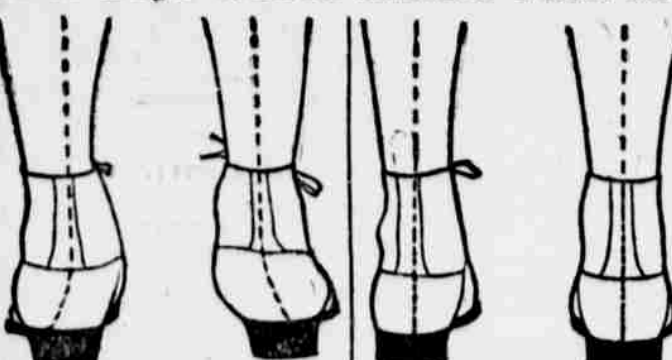

Police of Jersey City are to-day searching for the automobile which last night ran down and, it is feared, fatally injured Robert Nearer, thirteen years of age, of No. 30 Cottage street. The boy is now in Christ Hospital with a possible fracture of the skull.

The machine had a black body with yellow wheels and, according to two men who claim to have seen it, its number was 1709. The chauffeur was about thirty years of age, with sandy hair and mustache, and wore a soft hat. The boy was crossing New ark avenue when the machine came swiftly along and ran him down. Then the chauffeur put on more speed and got away.

Two men who were nearby at the time of the accident ran to the aid of the injured lad and the boy was sent to the hospital. The doctors said to-day they did not believe the patient could live.

THE Coward Shoe

For Boys Whose Ankles Turn In

The effect on the ankles of wearing shoes that do not support the arch.

The same feet in a pair of Coward Arch Support Shoes—ankle strain entirely relieved.

Growing feet need the help of the Coward Arch Supporting Shoe, with Coward Extension Heel.

This shoe, made on the Coward Orthopedic Last, allows the foot to meet the ground in a natural manner. The extension heel and arch support, steady the ankle, raise the sagging muscles, and keep the boy from "running his shoes over."

An easy, trim looking shoe, without the weight and awkwardness associated with ordinary remedial footwear. A great help to weak ankles, falling arch and "flat-foot."

For Men, Women and Children.

HETTY GREEN IS HUNTING A HOUSE IN NEW YORK.

Her Lease on Hoboken Flat Expires May 1—She Probably Will Go to a Hotel.

Hetty Green is house hunting in Manhattan. The lease on the little flat at Thirtieth and Washington streets, Hoboken, expires on May 1, and she has been spending a week with Mrs. George Kemp at No. 64 Madison avenue.

"It is likely," said Mrs. Kemp to-day, "that Mrs. Green will go to one of the hotels. I hardly think she will go to the Waldorf, where her son, Col. Edward H. Green, is stopping. She thought for a while of living at the Waldorf, but abandoned the plan. Mrs. Green has been keeping very

Easter Footwear

THIS is the time when every woman puts forth special effort to appear at her best. Easter is the season when mediocrity in dress is not to be considered. It is the season when gloves, hats and shoes must be absolutely beyond reproach. We emphasize the word shoes, because a pair of stylish shoes adds tenfold to the effect of an exclusive costume, and we accent the word "PATRICIAN" because PATRICIAN SHOES are quintessence of refinement and elegance—the acknowledged aristocrats of feminine footwear.

Girls' Radium

Calf Pumps

$3.00

A great favorite with schoolgirls.

In selecting your Easter footwear, don't be satisfied with a shoe that falls short of your highest ideals. Let your choice be PATRICIAN and you will have no regrets.
